

Cath Hubbuck, UK

Cath Hubbuck is a registered Health Play Specialist. She qualified in 2001 and has worked in a number of hospitals around the UK. She is currently based at Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children in London where she works in the PICU and within the Palliative Care team.

Cath has written about the role of the health play specialist and has also spoken at national and international conferences on subjects including the importance of normalising play as part of the HPS's role and theoretical approaches to understanding children's lived experiences of illness and treatment.

Caroline Potter, USA

Caroline Potter, MS, CCLS is a senior child life specialist in both the outpatient cardiology clinic and pediatric cardiac intensive care unit in the Blalock-Taussig-Thomas Heart Center at Johns Hopkins Children's Center, Baltimore, Maryland, USA. She is also an adjunct faculty member in the Family Studies and Community Development department at Towson University in Towson, Maryland, USA.